PHI (SUNDAY EVE., JAN. 29, 1885.

The Republicans try to throw the blame of delay in organization of Northern on the Democrats. If the Democrats are to do it, why do not the Republicans not do it?

Simply because the Republicans have not a majority, and are therefore unable to do anything. Whenever a Republican member offers a motion looking to the permanent organization of the house, Mr. Stewart, Mr. Baker, of Mountain, or some other member of that side, cries out, "no vote," and thereupon every Democrat refuses to answer to his name, and the chair solemnly announces that the roll call shows less than a quorum present, and the deadlock is no nearer a solution than before. The other day a Democrat moved a call of the house, and though all the Republicans answered to their name, the Democrats—including the one who moved the call and the temporary speaker who entertained the motion—refused to answer, and the call showed no quorum. The question was then raised that the speaker must recognize his own presence and that of the member who moved the call, but Mr. Cronkite overruled the point of order and declared that there was no evidence of his presence except what the roll call showed. This ridiculous decision may be law, but it is not good sense, and no one knows it better, nor no one more clearly appreciates the fact that the Democrats in majority is alone responsible for the deadlock, than the man who wrote the characteristic squib which we quote from the Review. The political situation in the two houses is exactly the same—the Democrats having a majority in the house, while the Republicans have a majority of one in the senate. When the Republicans can unite and organize without an hour's delay, but not so the Democratic house. Over three weeks of time have been wasted, and $40,000 of the people's money squandered, the only result being to show the utter incapacity of the Democratic party to carry on the work of legislation even when it has a majority. The people will not fail to observe the trimmings of the case, and will make no mistake in fixing the responsibility.

PAUL ALEXANDER PRESS (4) Clever land's silent Cabinet trick continues to mystify everybody. He does it without any resort to supernatural agencies, and a close examination of the Cabinet shows there is nobody in it to act as a confederate.

PORTABLE ELECTRICITY.

LITERARY GLOBE publishes an article in the Philadelphia Press in which he expresses the belief that the North Pole can be reached by a properly equipped expedition via Fraus Josef Land. This route secures a continuity of land, with Northern trend and Western aspect, a secure harbor, easy of access, together with good soil for sledging operations. In short, this route possesses unusual advantages to success, with the minimum of danger. It would have been supposed that the terrible sufferings endured by the friendly party would have the effect of keeping the mouth of the chief actor silent on this subject for a little while, at least.

Taxes are 204 judges of election under indictment in Chicago for conniving at fraud at the election in November. These were the judges appointed by the friends of Carter Harris in the grand jury in its report.

The inchoate, numerous as they are, do not give the full measure of the shame and disgrace to which this community has been brought. Out of 171 precincts into which the city was divided, there were but seven at which were not violations of the election laws—in many cases, perhaps, through ignorance, some from carelessness and others doubtless through criminal intent. It is to be regretted that those who appointed the ignorant and careless to important positions cannot be held responsible. The evidence would indicate that fraud was attempted or committed at every step in the election. Progression, fraud at registration, fraud at the primaries, fraud at the reception and at the counting of the ballots.

It fraud at the final canvass of the votes, if not fraud, its equivalent in neglect of official duty. Based on the vote cast for the state, county, appropriation and the vote received for it, there is a deficit of $100,000. While the appropriation of $100,000 for the police, by the revenue given, was carried by a major part of several thousand, the actual shows that it was defeated.

Y. BAKER is receiving now shoes, for cash, at prices that will enable you to get a right expensive to the best bargains in the city, either the place between Lake and Michigan, or 10th and 12th.

HAINES IS SPEAKER.

Liniger H. Crow and Votes for Elijah, who Votes for Himself.

(Special to the REPUBLICAN.)

SPRINGFIELD, Jan. 29, 1:30 p.m.—The long deadlock on the speakership question was broken at noon today by the election of Elijah M. Haines as permanent Speaker. He received 78 votes, Liniger, Stittig and Fuller voting for Haines. Fuller got the balance of the votes—75.

The House is now voting on the motion to proceed to the election of permanent officers.

AN UNCONDITIONAL MIXTURE.

A Couple of Italians Drink Hair Dye by Mistake, and Die.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., January 29.—Two Italians named Costanza, Lerso, and Ernesto Esteve respectively, the former a shoemaker of Philadelphia, and the latter a carpenter of 229 South Fifth Avenue, New York, swallowed a hair dye mixture, mistaking it for snuff—seed cordial, in the barber shop of Lorenzo Jaser, No. 66 Hamilton Avenue, last night, and after suffering exfoliating agony before medical aid could arrive, both died. A third man, named Gatto, who had also swallowed most of the stuff, saved himself by running into a neighboring grocery and swallowing some oil, which caused him to vomit freely. He will recover. Jaser, the barber, fled and has not yet been found.

SELF-APPOINTED GUARDIAN OF HIS MOTHER.

SATURDAY, Jan. 29.—For a year past John Olivas has been Superintendent on the farm owned by a handsome young widow named Wells, and fell in love with her fair employee. Mrs. Wells has a young son and three sons, who was greatly opposed to his mother's receiving the attentions of the overseer. Last evening Mrs. Wells visited her sister, living about a mile distant, and Olivas accompanied her back to her house. When they arrived at the farm gate young Wells hated them and asked what they were doing. Olivas then started to run down the road. Wells who had a double-barreled shotgun in his hand shot both charges at him, striking him in the thigh and shoulder. Thirty-six buckshot entered him, and his mother's condition is considered dangerous.

DEFENDED BY GIRLS.

A Scapragate Rappah Leads an Attack on His Uncle's House.

ELK, Pa., January 29.—Masked robbers attacked the house of Mr. and Mrs. Guthrie Monday night during their absence. The house was barricaded and defended by their two young daughters, Edith and Jeanne, for three hours. Two beleaguered young girls were finally relieved by a company of neighbors who had been posted by telegraph signaling with lights from the window of Guthrie's house, a nephew, who devoured the parents from home, was the leader of the gang. Two of the robbers have been arrested.

A JOURNALIST IN CONTEMPT OF COURT.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., January 29.—John Deacon, Jr., was summoned to appear before the Grand Jury and furnish information relative to an article in one of the morning papers alleging crooked work in the jury which tried and acquitted J. Miller Kelly. He refused to give the information asked for, and was held for contempt of court. He will be given another chance to answer to-day. Geo. Moore, city editor of the Advertiser, was also compelled to appear before the Grand Jury to corroborate the article. The Advertiser has no corruption, among other articles which have lately appeared in that paper.

IN case the state fair is located in Decatur, it will be necessary to rebuild the amphitheatre at the fair grounds and make it much larger. It is suggested that it be located in front of the home stretch, northwest of the band stand. Whether we get the state show or not, the amphitheatre should be rebuilt for our county fairs. It is unsafe in its present condition.

THEATRICAL performance at the open house last night by the Laura Dassay combination drew a fair-sized audience. The play was the romantic drama in five acts, entitled "A Mountain Pink," which as a whole was presented with good effect. Miss Dastry, who was lately known as a dramatic reader, was the star, and she made a splendid impression as "Stacy's Weeks" the intrepid mountain girl, and was once called before the curtain amid a tempest of applause. She is a fine elocutionist as well as a talented actress. The support was very good. Cromie Hynson as Harry, Mr. Wilson as Trafton, and Mr. Langdon as Jack Weeks, being worthy of special mention. The company will call at Pekin to-night.

IN Justice McGarry's court last evening Thomas McCann was fined $10 and costs, and Andrew Murray $3 and costs, each for disorderly conduct. McCann went to jail and Murray paid up. The fight grew out of McCann's declaration that he could whip any— who had ever voted the Republican ticket. Murray hopped on to McCann and "did him up," besides perforating one ear with his teeth.

IN the dual part of Girofle-Girofle Miss Suzy Kewin added new laurels to those she gained the night before, and received the unanimous favor of the music loving people of York. She is not only a sweet and correct singer, with a voice of good compass under thorough control, but she is a lively pleasing actress, with a vivacious piety that cannot fail to win the hearty approval of all who come under her influence.

A BAD NEGRO.

With an Ax He Tried to Clean Out Kitchen and Finally Lands in Jail.

There was quite a lively rumpus in the kitchen at the Palace Hotel this morning, resulting from the crazy conduct of George Frederick, a stout darky of 22, who has been on duty there for two weeks as second cook under Billy Buchanan, head cook. Frederick has been using insulting remarks to the girls, and it was only yesterday that he hurled a heavy pan at the head of Mary Barry, who luckily dodged it. To-day the fellow got to drinking and he vented his wrath on Buchanan. Billy proceeded to give him a good flogging. The men were separated and then Frederick was discharged. Subsequently he returned to the kitchen with an ax he found in the yard. He was looking for Billy, and wanted his blood, but Billy had discreetly vacated the kitchen. At this juncture Peter Laux appeared on the scene with the heavy end of a billiard cue, and Frederick, swearing and threatening to clean out the house, was forced to vacate. He left vowing vengeance. At about noon he was found near the square by Marshal Mason and Officer Hartley, who plucked the nippes off him and proceeded to lug him to the jail. The fellow yelled like a Comanche Indian on the war path, and resisted at every step. He kicked both of the officers, and then Archie Muirhead, one of the boys, and Robert Damery, two. Dr. Paaren will visit in person each place and pass judgment on the afflicted horses. If they have the glanders they will be killed and properly destroyed.

THE charming comedy, "The Register," an adaptation of W. D. Howel's Century story of that name, is in rehearsal, and will be presented one night next week by members of the Young Ladies' Art Class. The characters will be personated by E. Curtis, W. M. Strange, Mrs. Albert Barnes and Miss Maud Burrows.

PERSONAL MENTION:

FRED HOPPING and wife, of Springfield are registered at the New Denning.

Mrs. ED C. GAY is at Salina, Kansas. Mr. Gay left for that place this morning.

CHARLES F. ARMSTRONG, leading merchant at Lovington, is at the St. Nicholas to-day.

WILLIAM A. ANDREAS, manager of the Dainty combination, paid us a call last evening.

GEORGE W. DOWNEY will leave for Philadelphia and New York to-morrow night on business.

B. GARDNER, Bills, called here by the death of his mother, arrived in the city last night from Woonsocket, Dakota.

MR. and MRS. GEORGE D. HOWARTH, of Chicago, are guests of K. H. ROBY and family.

MRS. E. J. CUMMING, of Macon, paid the city a visit yesterday and renewed her subscription to the REPUBLICAN.

JOHN KNIGHT, the Wabash engineer hurt in the Millman wreck, is now considered out of danger. Archie McNeill, that Mitchell, is doing finely.

NICK ROBERTS, advance man for the "Monte Carlo" romantic drama, is at the St. Nicholas, arranging for the production of the play here Feb. 4.

MRS. KATE B. RICKETS, of Windsor, an elocutionist who has many Decatur admirers, gave a fine entertainment before a large audience at Mattoon this week.

FRANK BLOOM, of the Wabash, got off a good one on Billy Anderson and Wayne Wilson last night; but gallery tickets did not go with them.

AS soon as the weather moderates Louis FEURY, the French cutter, who has about recovered from his prolonged illness, will come down town and take charge of his store on Merchant street.

MR. and MRS. WALTER HUTCHIN, who have been living at Gibson City, will return to Decatur and will reside here in future. Mr. Hutchin has disposed of his stock of goods at Gibson City.

A. T. TALMAGE, general manager of the Wabash, has a contract with the receivers of the company for the five years engagement in his office at a salary of $25,000 a year, dating from May 27, 1884.

MR. and MRS. JAMES CAMPBELL, who have recently returned from a trip to Europe, will be here to-morrow night.

MR. J. O. STEVENS, in company with his nephew Fred Stevens, of Silver City, New Mexico, are visiting relatives in Ashland this week. Mr. Fred Stevens is attending the Business College in this city.

SEBASTIAN ELHART, the street sprinkler, has been lying ill at his residence, No. 225 East Jefferson street, for several weeks, and his condition is considered alarming by his friends. He took a severe cold at Christmas, and now seems to have some call of the head, which does not yield to treatment.

THE directors of the "Commonwealth" Mutual Fire Insurance Company, of this city, have re-elected Mr. Edward C. Gay as inspector and adjuster for the company for another year. Mr. Gay has been with the company since its organization. He is considered one of the best insurance men of his age in the country.

THE Revival.

THERE was a large attendance at the First M. E. church last evening. Two penitents were at the altar, and there were two accessions to the church. To-night the presiding elder, Rev. W. H. Wylder, will preach. Evangelist Potters is expected on Saturday night.

BOTH CONVICTED.

THE trial of Lizzie Hart for maintaining a house of ill repute on North Water street, and Andy J. Jarrett for frequenting the same, was concluded in Justice Curtis' court last evening, and resulted in both defendants being fined $25 and costs each.

They were committed to jail in default of payment. D. C. Corley appeared for the defendants and Attorney Mills for the city. The chief prosecuting witness were Mr. and Mrs. Twinkler.

THE Current, in its issue of February 7th, will present a contribution from the Rev. Dr. Thomas, one of the most eminent clergymen of Chicago, to its "American Type" series. This series has attracted the widest attention as presenting for the first time the succinct and definite views of strong thinkers upon a subject which has the deepest interest for students of the American character.

AN "PLAYED OUT."

"I don't know what sills me but, I can't eat, can't sleep, won't work. Can't work, and don't enjoy doing anything. Ain't really sick, and I really ain't well. Feels all kind o' played out, somethin'." That is what scores of men say every day. If they would talk to Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" they would find no excuse for not getting well. It cures the skin, tones up the system and fortifies against disease. It is a great anti-bilious remedy as well.

THE members and friends of the new Madison church, 10 miles southwest of Decatur, will give an oyster supper, festival and socials at the church on Thursday evening, Feb. 5th. Citizens of Decatur and all the people of the neighborhood are invited to attend.

TWO days wait. As we haven't any restaurant in connection with our store we don't keep "200 kinds of men's $2.00 shoes," and thereby obtain customers two days to examine them all, but we do have the styles adapted to the season of gent's coats, and we sell durable stylish shoes, for $3.00. None genuine without our name and the price stamped in the sole.
